

UNITED STATES MARSHAL SERVICE

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Discuss the extent of your experience within Federal and/or municipal Law Enforcement, with specific reference to your position and duties within these agencies.
2. Discuss the extent of your experience within the United States Marshal Service, with specific reference to your position and duties within the agency.
3. Discuss your plans for the United States Marshal Service. You may submit your plans/policies in a different document if you wish. (DOCUMENT MUST BE IN .PDF FORMAT TO BE CONSIDERED.)
4. Why do you believe you can only better the service by taking on this position, as opposed to working from within the department?
5. In Federal Law Enforcement agencies, activity rapidly changes from extreme activity to low activity. How will you manage to keep the agency constantly active?
6. What skills relevant to the position you're applying for do you believe you possess that distinguish you from other applicants?
7. The United States Marshal Service often protects Judges, Supreme Court Justices, and Department of Justice administration officials. How will you improve protection details by the Marshal Service?
8. The Bureau of Prisons and the United States Marshal Service work closely together. How will you work with the Bureau of Prisons?
9. How will you administer the Federal prison clearances?

10. How will you ensure all employees of the Marshal Services remain active? How will you collect that information?
11. What will you do to ensure no rogues enter your department or foreign operatives? How will you manage their Background Checks
12. How will you ensure all Warrants are executed from the Judiciary? What actions will you have Marshal's take to ensure all warrants are executed in a quick and orderly fashion?
13. Upon entering office, The President-Elect intends to issue an executive order reducing the amount of tryouts and increasing the amount and accessibility of applications for almost all Federal Law Enforcement agencies. How will you enforce this executive order within your agency?